Gentelmen:

A letter from you was just delivered to me in this mornings mail. In it you asked for an answer to your letter to me of September 11th. I was very much surprised, as I was under the impression that your letter had been answered immediately upon its receipt.

The baseball office has been closed for some time now, but I examined the files, and find that your letter was not answered. I am very sorry. It was definitely an error on the part of the office secretary.

The entire award has now been paid, the final check being mailed out on Nov. 8th. The amount Mr. Kent awarded was, 9-1/7 weeks temporary, and 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ weeks permanent, \$15.42 per week.

If it is necessary to have Darltie Cooper sign this form will you mail it directly to him? His address 114 West Market St. Newark N.Jersey.

I hope this will straighten out the entire matter. I am sorry for the delay.

Very Truly Yours
